1. Policy Statement

1.1 Authority

The Australian Institute of Music Limited (AIM), known as ‘the Institute’, is governed by the Board of Directors (BoD) with academic authority delegated to the Academic Board (AB). The BoD and AB share joint responsibility for ensuring that all general and academic policies and procedures follow ‘best practice’ principles for Higher Education and other sectors of educational delivery, in compliance with relevant Australian legislation and current regulatory requirements.

The Institute has a student-centred approach to teaching, learning, research and scholarship and is committed to the intellectual and personal welfare of its students. The Institute aims to provide a safe, secure and inclusive learning environment that enables students to fulfil their academic potential and graduate to make a positive social, economic and cultural contribution to society.

The Institute actively discourages behaviours and actions that are inconsistent with a safe, equitable and respectful environment in which to work and study. It expects all members of the Institute to comply with this policy. Breaches falling within the parameters of this policy may result in disciplinary action or other appropriate penalties or sanctions.

1.2 Application

This policy and procedure applies to all students enrolled at AIM.

1.3 Purpose

The purpose of the Student Code of Conduct is to define expectations of student conduct while studying at the Institute. The Student Code of Conduct forms the basis for personal behavioural standards, and it is therefore vital that every student is familiar with its content.

1.4 Scope

This policy and procedure applies to all students enrolled in the Australian Institute of Music regardless of their location or mode of study. The Student Code of Conduct applies to students participating in learning (such as conferences, field trips and professional placements) or representing the Institute (such as at music events). If applicable, this policy and procedure will also apply in future, to students enrolled on QA AIM programs approved for delivery elsewhere in Australia or overseas.

1.5 Coverage

This policy and procedure applies to all students enrolled in AIM at the Sydney and Melbourne campuses.

1.6 Special Conditions or Exceptions

Nil.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

3. Breaches of the Student Code of Conduct

3.1 Procedures for dealing with breaches of the Student Code of Conduct

Any staff member may counsel a student for a breach of the Student Code of Conduct. Disciplinary action will occur in accordance with the following four-stage process:

3.1.1 Oral Warning

The details of any alleged unsatisfactory conduct, attitude, or poor or non-performance (academic) will be discussed with the student. The student will be given the opportunity to respond to each allegation.

- a. If the student's explanations are accepted, no further action will be taken.
- b. If the student's explanations are not accepted, an Oral Warning will be given, and the student and staff member will sign the Student Record of Warning to acknowledge this, after which the original will be placed on the student's file and a copy issued to the student.

3.1.2 First Written Warning

If the behaviour continues following a previous Oral Warning, or the alleged unsatisfactory conduct or poor or non-performance (academic) is deemed serious enough to warrant the omission of an Oral Warning, the student will normally be called to a meeting, where they will be given the opportunity to respond to the allegations.

- a. If the student's explanations are accepted, no further action will be taken.
- b. If the student's explanations are not accepted, a Written Warning will be given, and both student and staff member will sign to acknowledge this on the Student Record of Warning, after which the original will be placed on the student's file and a copy issued to the student.

3.1.3 Final Written Warning

This step will occur if previously a First Written Warning has been issued, or the alleged unsatisfactory conduct or poor or non-performance (academic) continues or is deemed serious enough to warrant the issuing of a Final Written Warning. The student will normally be called to a meeting and given written details of the allegations and will be given the opportunity to respond. Reference will be made to the content or any previous disciplinary action:

- a. If the student's explanations are accepted, no further action will be taken.
- b. If the student's explanation are not accepted, the Final Written Warning will be issued, and both student and staff member will sign the Student Record of Warning to acknowledge this, after which the original will be placed on the student's file and a copy issued to the student.

3.1.4 Suspension or Expulsion

This step will occur if previously a Final Written Warning has issued, or the alleged unsatisfactory conduct or poor or non-performance (academic) is deemed serious enough to lead immediate suspension or expulsion, especially if putting others at risk. The student will normally be called to a meeting and given written details or the allegations and will be given the opportunity to respond. Reference will be made to the content of any previous disciplinary action.

- a. If the student's explanations are accepted, the suspension may be lifted, with a noted placed on the student file.
- b. If the student's explanations are not accepted the Suspension/Expulsion will be actioned:
 - i. In the case of suspension, a letter will be issued to the student stating the conditions under which they may be permitted to return to the Institute. A copy will be placed in the student's file.
 - ii. In the case of expulsion, AIM's Appeals Panel will be convened to review the decision and the student will be given the opportunity to present evidence in accordance with AIM's Appeals Policy and Procedure.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

- c. Both the student and the Head of Student Experience and Success (HoSES) (or delegate) will sign the Student Record of Warning, stating the reasons for the Suspension or Expulsion.

3.2 Complaints and Grievance

The Institute’s Student Grievances and Complaints Policy and Procedure may be used if a student feels they have been unfairly treated in regard to the Student Code of Conduct.

3.3 Amendments to the Code

The Institute reserves the right to make changes to the Student Code of Conduct without prior notice. The most current version of the Student Code of Conduct is available via SharePoint/Quality/Policies and Procedures, and it is the student’s responsibility to familiarise themselves with any changes to the Code.
